APL Nominated for 2011 Small Business of the Year Award

Chattanooga, TN: Lee Robertson, President of APL Power Services, announced that the company was notified by the Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce that it had been nominated for this prestigious award.

Every year these awards are bestowed on three businesses who have been in business for at least three years, are a member of the Chattanooga Area Chamber of Commerce in good standing, having employees 1-20, 21-50, or 51-200 full-time equivalent staff and have shown exemplary success within their industry.
